following him?

A. The fact I knew they sold synthetic marijuana in this store, that a detective who had been a narcotics detective for over 25 years told me personally they were selling synthetic marijuana, the consistency of the packaging with it being a foil package.

Q. When did he tell you that?

A. Maybe -- it was probably in June. It wasn't too much before.

Q. Why not investigate the store if they were selling marijuana? Why not investigate the store?

MS. PAULI: Objection, Your Honor, to relevance.

THE WITNESS: I am investigating the --

THE COURT: Why not investigate the store?

MS. WHITEFORD: She knows they are selling.

THE COURT: She had a reasonable suspicion, perhaps, that they were, but that wasn't her task apparently. She is a supervisor. And as to relevance to this incident, I will sustain the objection. It is not relevant to what happened here.
